About Brill

Founded in 1683 in Leiden, the Netherlands, Brill is a leading international academic publisher in the field of International Law, Human Rights, Humanitarian Law, Criminal Law, Law of the Sea, Investment, Trade and Economic Law.

Other subject areas are Middle East and Islamic Studies, Asian Studies, Classical Studies, History, Biblical and Religious Studies, Language & Linguistics, Literature & Cultural Studies, Philosophy, Biology, Education, and Social Sciences.

With offices in Leiden (NL), Boston (US), Paderborn (GER) Singapore (SG) and Beijing (CN), Brill today publishes over 310 journals and close to 1,400 new books a year, as well as reference works and databases. The company's key customers are academic and research institutions, libraries, and scholars.

Thanks to the takeover of Martinus Nijhoff Publishers from Kluwer Law International in 2003, Brill acquired a leading position in the field of international law. A year later, The Hague Academy of International Law awarded the publishing contract for its Collected Courses once again to Brill | Nijhoff.

Brill | Nijhoff's portfolio focuses on areas in Public International Law, Human Rights, Humanitarian Law and increasingly on International Relations.

Databases and Reference Works

The Hague Academy Collected Courses Online

The most important encyclopedic publication on private and public international law.

Online access to over 80 years of the history of international law for students and researchers around the world. The Hague Academy of International Law is a center for high level education in public and private international law. The Academy's scientific body, the Curatorium, calls upon foremost specialists, including academics, practitioners, diplomats, and other leading experts from all over the world, to deliver courses to an international audience in English or French. The courses are published in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law.

Foreign Law Guide is an essential database offering relevant information on sources of foreign law, including complete bibliographic citations to legislation, the existence of English translations and selected references to secondary sources in one virtual destination. Broad in content and global in scope, the FLG is an indispensable resource for comparative law research and a fundamental tool for developing a foreign and comparative law collection. Approximately 190 jurisdictions are systemically covered and updated by a global team of experts.

Encyclopedia of Law and Religion covers all independent nations and jurisdictions as well as the major international organizations, treating the relation between law and religion in its various aspects, including those related to the role of religion in society, the relations between religion and state institutions, freedom of religion, legal aspects of religious traditions and the interaction between law and religion.

Handbook of WTO/GATT Dispute Settlement Online is an essential resource for trade law practitioners that want to navigate and quickly master complex WTO/GATT reports spanning hundreds of pages in length.

International Maritime Boundaries Online provides update-to-date, regionally-organized content. Complete with hyperlinked maps and keyword search functionality, systematic, expert analysis of all international maritime boundaries, joint development zones and unitization agreements worldwide, comprehensive coverage of every modern maritime boundary treaty, analysis of maritime boundaries established by decision of the International Court of Justice, the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea, and ad hoc tribunals.

United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea Online – The scope and duration of this project is without precedent as an academic undertaking in the field of international law. The project was conceived by its editors to meet the need - particularly essential in the absence of an official legislative history for the Convention - for an objective and comprehensive analysis of the articles in the Convention.

Rosenne's Law and Practice of the International Court: 1920-2015 Online – The leading work on the court, it has influenced generations of legal scholars, practitioners, judges, and students alike. The Fifth Edition (updated through 2015) is an essential component of all international law libraries and an indispensable work for those practicing in the field, who will all appreciate access to the most recent work on the Court.
